

tive in the State of Virginia, whereupon the Governor of Maryland shall issue a proclamation declaring the provisions of this Act to be effective.

Approved May 2, 1941.

---

CHAPTER 797.

(House Bill 718)

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Justices of the Peace", sub-title "Trial Magistrates System", said new section, to be under a subheading "Committing Magistrates—Prince George's County", to be known as Section 95A and to follow immediately after Section 95 of the said Article, to provide that, in Prince George's County, the Justices of the Peace, other than a Trial Magistrate, whose salaries are increased by the County Commissioners of said County, under the provisions of Section 103 of Article 52, shall perform the duties of their office as Committing Magistrates in said County and shall sit for the performance thereof at such places in said County, within or without the election districts for which such Justices of the Peace were severally appointed, and during such times as the County Commissioners may designate in a schedule in providing for the increased compensation of such Justices; providing that the County Commissioners of said County may furnish quarters and supplies for the performance of the duties of such Justices as Committing Magistrates at the places designated in a schedule to be adopted by them; providing that the County Commissioners may designate the Rooms, or any part thereof, assigned to the County Police Department as the places where such Justices shall sit as Committing Magistrates; providing that any such Justice when performing the duties of his office as Committing Magistrate at a place designated by the County Commissioners as herein provided, if such place be in an election district of said County other than the election district for which such Justice was appointed, shall have all the jurisdiction and authority to perform the duties of his office in said election district where such place may be as well as within the election district for which he was appointed, as a Committing Magistrate, but not as a Trial Magistrate; relating to additional powers conferred on such Justices of the Peace as Committing Magistrates; providing